How much do you write when your mother tells you family scandal?

Barbara Ann Reid was helping all the family with the yearly butchering. Everyone (uncles, aunts, cousins, etc.) got together and did all the butchering together, it went faster when many helped. Anyway right in the middle of butchering, the slaughtering came to a screetching halt! and Barbara gave birth to a daughter....shock of shockers! No one in the family knew a thing about it. Barbara married a Will Francis, whom my mother called a drunkard! sometime later.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF

Mrs. Joanna Pontious,
Born April 17, 1838.
Died Feb. 27, 1908.
Age 69 yrs. 10 mos. 10 days,

Gone but not forgotten

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled,
The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Grandma Reid's recipe for sweet dumplings

When baking bread and it is all ready to mould into loaves. pinch off a piece about what would make a small loaf of bread, into this stir a well beaten egg, a little salt, 1 tablespoon melted shortening, and 2 or 3 Tablespoons milk, stir in enough flour to make it stiff and mould as you would a loaf of bread, let rise until very light, then with a sharp knife cut into pieces as you would dumplings and drop into a boiling syrup. made with water brown sugar and a generous lump of butter. do not have to thin a syrup or they will fall. when done the syrup should be thick to be eaten with dumplings Serve when hot. May be eaten spread with butter, or with a good rich milk

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me;
And may there be no moaning of the bar when I put out to sea
But such a tide, as moving seems asleep, too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep, turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell and after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell, when I embark.
For tho from out our bourne of time and place, the flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face.
When I have crossed the bar.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our thanks to the neighbors and friends, who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our mother and sister, Mrs. Susanna Reid, the minister for his words of comfort and faith, the friends for the beautiful flowers and everyone for their kindness and sympathy.

written by Susannah Reid
April the 10, 1887 - Easter Sunday

We may write our names in albums
We may trace them in the sand
We may chisel them in marble
With a firm and skilful hand
But these pages soon are sullied
Soon each name will fade away
Every monument will crumble

As all earthly hopes decay
But my friend there is an album
Full of leaves of snowy white
Where no name is ever tarnished
But forever pure and bright
In the book of life God's album
May your name be penned with care
And may all who here have written
Write their names forever there

Compliments of Mama

Beautiful toiler, thy work all done
Beautiful soul into glory gone,
